

4th Semester Course - VIII

• Curriculum Transaction :

Curriculum transaction is the process of planning and organizing the curriculum in a particular. It is effective planning for providing learning experiences for learners. ~~Organization of planning~~ ^{it is} implementation of the organized planning of curriculum contents on the basis of aims and objectives.

• Some of the requirements of objective curriculum transaction:

- Planning
- clarity of thought
- organizing
- knowing how we will transact
- Review of the work
- Team responsibility
- clarity of communication
- Addressing different levels of children
- knowing, observing and understanding children at all times.
- Time management
- Alertness
- Material organization
- Room set up
- The way we reach out to the children
- Always being alert.

Mode of Curriculum Transaction

The face to face mode

The distance mode.

Methodologies of curriculum transaction:

- ~~Herbertian~~ Herbartian Model of Teaching.
- Problem solving Method
- 5E model of instruction.
- Bruner's Method of teaching.
- Asubel's Theory of teaching.
- Gagne's instructional design.